

INDEX TO VOLUME V.

1845.

ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

Address to the readers, 1.
The epistles of Henry, Bishop of Exeter, 1.
Address to the diocese of the laity of Exeter, 17.
Uniformity, 33.
Retreat of the bishop militant, 33.
The forthcoming British Quarterly, 45.
Geographical Christianity, 61.
First steps to another establishment, 77.
Hard words and mysterious inuendoes, 77.
Tit-bits of confession, 77.
Solemn tomfoolery, 93.
The sorrows of serfdom, 109.
A variation of the same theme, 109.
An appeal to Cæsar, 125.
Noli me tangere. Hands off, 141.
Our correspondents, 158.
City churches, 237.
The nick of time, 253.
No compromise, 269.
Poverty—Crime—Bible monopoly, 269.
The rage for union, 301.
Not too late, 333.
How to be respected, 365.
The Dissenters' anti-Maynooth conference, 381.
Dissent established in spite of itself, 397.
Dead flies, 413.
Dr. Campbell and the Bible monopoly, 413.
The Regium Donum, 429.
The secretary's humble pie, 445.
Vows made in trouble, 462.
The forlorn hope, 477.
Re-appearance of the northern lights, 477.
Positives and negatives, 493.
Anti-state-church electoral clubs, 509.
The force of character, 525.
Deeds not words, 541.
Anti-state-church soirée, 781.

CONGREGATIONAL UNIONISM.

1. Prefatory apology, 157.
2. Government ad libitum, 174.
3. Hiding by adorning, 189.
4. Sacerdotalism, 205.
5. Recommendationary rule, 221.
6. Supplementary observations, 237.

HOLIDAY EXCURSIONS.

1. Proposals and plans, 557.
2. Love and its influence, 637.
3. Party, 653.
4. Ridiculous minorities, 669.
5. The humble apology of a small minority, 685.
6. Patience! patience! 701.
7. The prophet's office declined, 717.
8. The present seen from the past, 733.
9. The present seen from the future, 749.
10. The work of teaching, 765.
11. Something hopeful, 781.
12. The stone rolled away, 797.
13. Ripe and ready to drop, 813.
14. The flame of affection gone out, 829.
15. The tendencies of the age, 845.
16. Clearing the stage, 861.
17. The power of truth, 877.

ANTI-STATE-CHURCH MOVEMENT.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Southampton, 1; Colchester, 141; Edinburgh Voluntary Church Association, 158; Brentford, 174; Eastern institution (Maynooth), 210; Tottenham-court road (Maynooth), 259; Finsbury, 275; Finsbury Chapel, 333; Holywell, 445; Pontypool, 446; Stony Stratford, 461; Buckingham, 461; Dolgelly, 461; Newtown, 477; Edinburgh, 478; Bristol, 573; Bridge House hotel (Southwark election), 589; Braintree, 621; Coggeshall, 637; London Tavern (£3,000 fund), 797; Gateshead, 814; Nottingham, 815; South Shields, 831; Nottingham, 845; Derby, 846; Sheffield, 849.
LECTURES.—Prescott-street chapel, 1; Fetter-lane chapel, 51; Salter's-hall chapel, 67; Leeds, 78; Islington, 93; Anon chapel, 125; Beulah chapel, 142; Lambeth, 142; Homerton, 158; Tabernacle, Moorfields, 189; Bungay, 257; Harleston, 272; Exeter, 272; Tonbridge, 334; Tenby, 493; Northampton, 801; Harborough, 801.
MISCELLANEOUS.—Annual meeting of the Council, 304; Address on Regium Donum, 480; model of an electoral club, 541; extracts from correspondence on ditto, 541; the press on ditto, 557.

GENERAL NEWS.

CHURCH-RATES.—Alfreton, 61; Cambridge, 125; Sutton Bonington, 143; Tavistock, 143; Leicester, 143, 158; Greenwich, 147; Wigston, 190; Christ Church, Surrey, 208; Strood, 241; Stoke Newington, 273, 445; Guildford, 273; Nottingham, 336; Ipswich, 385, 398, 462; Bradford, 385; Neworth, 445;

Stepney; St. Paul's, Covent Garden; Keighley, 462, 481; South Shields, 462; Wisbeach, 462; Bury St. Edmunds, 462, 830; Birmingham, 494; Norwich, 494, 573, 830; Stamford, 510; Runcorn, 510; Morpeth, 525; Chaltenham, 525, 638, 654, 702, 801, 814; Cannon-street, 526; Lincoln, 526; Wakefield, 605, 621, 638, 801; Wickham Bishops, 637; Doncaster, 638, 670, 702; Kingsland, 702; Newcastle, 718; Bath, 750; Barnsley, 750; Pontypool, 782, 815, 848; Bishopsgate, 782; St. Alban's, 801, 878; Ilfracombe, 830; Torrington, 830.

THE TRACTARIAN MOVEMENT.—The Bishop of Exeter and the laity, 2, 33, 37, 47, 159; Meeting at Exeter, 18; the archbishop's letter, 46; the schism in the state-church, 62, 75, 109, 191, 481, 621; Ware, 63, 158; Shore-ditch, 190, 542, 750; Mr. Ward, 606, 629; the Oxford Convocation, 110; dissolution of the Camden Society, 111; case of Mr. Oakeley, 4, 33, 419; Puseyism in Ireland, 143; ditto in the colonies, 526; secessions from the church, 21, 654, 713, 732, 782, 801; Dr. Pusey at Leeds, 766.

SCOTLAND.—Free Church commission, 159; Free Church and slavery, 175, 386, 431; Free Church and voluntary principle, 336, 417, 510; Free Church assembly, 386, 398, 417, 592, 605; state-church ditto, 386, 398, 416; United Secession Synod, 548, 559; the annuity tax, 749.

FOREIGN.—The German Reformation, 19, 126, 159, 175, 241, 273, 398, 447, 543, 559, 592, 606, 621, 637, 654, 656, 670, 686, 691, 701, 717, 740, 765, 773, 781, 815; the state church in Guiana, 34, 654; persecution in Denmark, 63; Jamaica, 79, 495; American churches and slavery, 447; Vaudois Regium Donum, 510; effects of state pay in France, 559; disruption in the Canton de Vaud, 813, 830, 847, 861, 877.

MISCELLANEOUS.—The agitation against the Maynooth Bill, 174, 179, 190, 206, 211, 221, 227, 238, 259, 270, 307, 335, 370, 397, 415, 429, 446; Dr. Cox's address, 205; extracts from the press, 223, 241, 243, 253, 256; the division lists, 256, 416; the Anti-Maynooth conference, 275, 302; conference of Dissenters, 301, 366, 371, 382; list of delegates, 369; address to the Roman Catholics of Ireland, 381; meeting of Dissenting deputies, 414; Dublin conference, 414; seizures from the Friends, 2; the Catholic church of Great Britain, 3; monument to Dr. Watts, 156; meeting of Dissenting deputies, 303; English Regium Donum, 430; Charitable Trusts Bill, 480; Irish Presbyterians and Voluntarism, 493; Dr. D'Aubigné on Voluntarism, 494; Baptist Noel on the Irish Church, 494; religious worship in France, 495; Dr. D'Aubigné in London, 509; Wesleyan conference, 543; address of deputies of the Three Denominations, 558; case of Mr. Shore, 558, 782; the Church of Mammoth, 558; bankruptcy of the Ecclesiastical commission, 591, 621; Wesleyans and the Church, 591; the Jesuits, 669; Primate Beresford's charge, 686; religious persecution in Russia, 687, 750; meeting of the Congregational Union, 719; sale of church livings, 751; Popish indulgences, 766; tithes of fish, 783, 861; a clergyman's defence of a state-church, 829; clerical delinquent, 830; the poor man's church, 878; Ministers and the income tax, 830, 878; Lord John Russell and the Voluntary principle, 878.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Christian Witness, 3, 19, 94.
Commissioners of vacant churches, 3.
Congregational unionism, 19, 191.
The clergy of Marylebone, 63.
Proposals for aiding churches in choice of pastors, 80, 94, 126.
Bronchitic affections, 80.
Free church and the voluntary principle, 121.
Conservatism of error, 126.
Teaching by pictures, 159.
The Christian Witness and our correspondents, 175, 191.
New plan for protecting nonconformist churches, 91, 176.
City freedom, 192.
Case of John Tawell, 192.
The Maynooth grant, 208, 224, 241.
Leicestershire justice, 242.
The deputies of the three denominations, 336, 379.
W. P. Crawford, Esq., M.P., 336.
Parliamentary misrepresentation of Dissenters, 336.
Charitable Trusts Bill, 386.
The Whigs and religious freedom, 397.
The History of the Regium Donum, 399.
Dissenters and their Irish fellow-subjects, 418.
Ministers' money—Ireland, 431.
Place for the relief of farmers, &c., 448, 495, 527.
Mr. Tidman and his explanatory letter, 463.
Forms of prayer, 463.

The marriage contract, 464.
Electoral policy of Dissenters, 481.
Dumpton Hall school, 481.
Letter to the Hon. Baptist Noel, 510.
The borough of Marylebone, 665.
Church-rate distrains, 665.
Southwark election, 698.
The Congregational union, 762.
Reasons for leaving the established church, 777.
Christian union, 801, 816.
A sustentation fund, 801, 815, 831, 863, 879.
Chapel debts, 831.

POLITICAL ARTICLES.

Summary, 8, 24, 38, 52, 68, 84, 100, 116, 132, 148, 164, 180, 196, 212, 228, 244, 260, 276, 308, 340, 372, 388, 404, 420, 436, 452, 468, 484, 500, 516, 532, 548, 564, 580, 596, 612, 628, 644, 660, 676, 692, 708, 724, 740, 756, 772, 788, 804, 820, 833, 852, 868, 884.
A peep over the hills of time, 8.
Capital punishments, 6.
The sleep of curiosity, 24.
Who will get the surplus, 25.
Governing by ecclesiastics, 38.
Adulation of the powers that be, 38.
The royal visit to Stowe, 39.
A warning to political agitators, 52.
Impertinent curiosity rebuffed, 53.
Transference of political power, 68.
The national patron of immorality, 69.
Peering ahead, 84.
The Queen's speech, 95.
Character before place, 100.
What's behind the mask, 101.
The budget, 116.
Teaching by pictures, 132.
The progress of meanness, 133.
The current of legislation for Ireland, 133.
Exclusive dealing on a national scale, 148.
Making game of the people, 149.
Unanimity of interests, 164.
Garden allotments, 165.
The increased grant to Maynooth, 180.
What ails you? What's that to you? 181.
City of London, 181.
The title-page of a new volume of legislation, 196.
The New Zealand squabble, 196.
Signs of progress, 197.
Cui bono? 212.
Sympathy turned away by law, 212.
The Maynooth debate, 228.
The Oregon territory—Impolicy of war, 229.
The pet corporation, 229.
Measure for measure, 244.
The exception to everything, 260.
The chamber of abominations, 276.
A speck in the horizon, 308.
The modern substitute for justice, 340.
The trick seen through, 372.
British Dissenters and Irish Roman Catholics, 388.
The Whig bill of fare, 388.
Why so bold? 404.
The obvious direction of modern state-craft, 420.
Her Majesty's bal costumé, 421.
Sheep before men, 436.
The want of a colonial policy, 452.
National knight-errantry, 469.
The Charitable Trusts Bill, 469.
Religious education: extracted from the dictionary of the modern politician, 484.
Irish police outrages, 485.
Wheel about! 581.
Colonial disasters, 501.
An extraordinary dream, 516.
Earl Grey, 516.
Sunderland election—a rally for freedom, 532.
Kissing the grindstone, 533.
Political morality of parliamentary constitutions, 548.
Annexation of Texas, 549.
The session of 1845, 564.
The Sunderland election, 565.
Railway conservatism, 565.
The weather and the crops, 565.
Another electoral chance, 580.
The Sunderland defeat, 581.
The Southwark election, 596.
Corrections and explanations, 597.
Honesty the best policy, 612.
The Southwark election. What will become of it? 628.
The deer-buttue of Goths, 628.
Cries of the wounded, 644.
Gain in loss, 660.
The Andover union infamy, 660.
Death punishments, 661.
Up and be doing, 676.
The Electric Review on the Southwark election, 676.
The dull season, 692.
Earl Spencer, 692.
The Leeds Mercury on "ridiculous minorities," 693.
The race for riches, 693.
Railway speculations, 708.

The Revenue, 708.
The glorious unpaid, 709.
A marble Oliver, 709.
Famine—its teachings, 724.
Mr. O'Connell and the Dissenters of England, 724.
The corn monopoly in extremis, 740.
Soirée of the Manchester Athenæum, 741.
Mammoth-worship, 741.
Reflections to fill up the pause, 756.
Clerical and unpaid magistrates, 756.
Drifting among shoals, 772.
Silence gives consent, 788.
Treasuring up judgment, 804.
King Dan and his tribute-money, 805.
Who is the better friend to Ireland? 805.
Colonial oppression, 805.
The Russell manifesto, 820.
Food for reflection, 821.
A glimpse of land, 833.
Slaughter-house beauties, 834.
The decampment, 852.
Why, then the mustard without the beef, 853.
Anti-slavery minstrels, 853.
The demise of party, 868.
"Teeth-money" to the aristocracy, 869.
William Knibb, 869, 884.
Peace and the Oregon question, 869.
The year 1845, 884.
The Oregon question, 884.

PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES.

Debates on the address, 83, 95; railways, 95, 99, 114, 130, 192, 233, 243, 259, 265, 336, 421, 455, 488, 504, 547, 559; agricultural distress, 95; defective construction of ships of the navy, 111; the financial statement, 111; factory labour, 115; extension of the income tax to Ireland, 126; post-office espionage, 127, 151, 227, 408; sugar duties, 129, 150, 152, 160, 183; the government and the Italian insurgents, 130; treatment of liberated Africans, 131; the medical profession 131; the game laws, 151; disensions in the church, 153; letter opening for foreign despots, 153, 211; the income tax, 159, 161, 182; museums of art, 160; cost of the West India monopoly, 160; admission of Jews to corporate offices, 162; New Zealand, 162, 183, 179, 435, 458, 504, 512, 538, 544, 559; the new poor-law, 168; agricultural distress, 188, 184; the window tax, 179; the endowment of Maynooth, 192, 230, 246, 247, 243, 259, 262, 265, 266, 278, 281, 310, 371, 374, 389, 392, 403, 408, 419, 422, 434; Mr. Crawford's amendment on ditto, 310; customs duties, 192; the slave-trade, 192, 338, 374, 451; supply, 298, 311, 432, 455, 471, 529; colonial accounts, 211; factory labour of women and children, 230; illegal imprisonment, 230; the Oregon territory, 232, 233; Mr. Duncombe's letter, 232; the army estimates, 232; the auction duties, 232; health of towns, 227; field gardens, 246, 336, 485; Sir H. Pottinger, 403; law of insolvency, 406; minister's money in Ireland, 406; banking (Ireland and Scotland), 280, 421, 422, 433, 457; law of insolvency, 282; condemned sermons, 282, 338; admission to Scotch universities, 309; private committees and Irish members, 310; condition of the labouring classes, 311, 390, 405; Welsh bishoprics, 312; auction duties, 312; Australian coin, 337; Irish colleges, 337, 406, 432, 433, 455, 471, 487, 503, 513; the slanders on Mazzini, 338; reform of the college of surgeons, 378; manning the navy, 374; privilege, 374, 406, 478, 486, 504, 514; law reform, 375; the navy, 390; charitable trusts' bill, 392; ecclesiastical courts, 393, 473; repeal of the corn-laws, 419; lunatics, 421, 485; compensation to tenants in Ireland, 423, 451, 473; Scotch poor-law amendment bill, 431, 486, 504; breach of privilege, 432; Sir H. Pottinger, 433; compensation to tenants in England, 433; dog stealing, 433, 471; state of Ireland, 434; education in Ireland, 435; army enlistment, 467; public executions, 467; the post-office, 471; museum of national antiquities, 471; commons inclosure bill, 483, 486; business of the session, 487; Brazilian slave trade, 488, 528; administration of criminal justice, 488; Spanish colonial sugars, 499; religious tests in the Scotch universities, 502; coal trade, 501; refusal of sites in Scotland, 504, 528; Jewish disabilities, 511; flogging soldiers, 511; sale of church-property in Ireland, 512; Captain Boldero and Mr. Bonham, 512; Orange processions, 513; the army in the Peninsula, 513; the Rajah of Sattara, 514; duties on butter and cheese, 514; deteriorated courage, 529; educational estimates, 529; school of designs, 529; physic and surgery bill, 529; income tax extortion, 543; railway accidents, 544; English regium donum, 544; Irish ditto, 544; affairs of Greece, 545, 547; case of Mr. Wray, 545; waste lands (Australia), 545; law of settlement, 545; free admission to cathedrals, 546; review of the session, 547; state of Syria, 559; prorogation speech, 560.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Speech of the King of the French, 4, 707, 783; the President's message, 4; the affairs of Tahiti, 7, 27, 131, 144, 386, 423, 464, 481, 537, 607, 689; ministerial crisis in France, 20, 23, 35; slavery outrages in America, 35; opening of the Portuguese Cortes, 35; American Congress and Texas, 37, 97, 118, 176; Captain Walker, the anti-slavery advocate, 48; the anti-slavery movement in America, 49, 65, 144, 167, 424, 540, 672, 759, 819; the French in China, 49; revolution in Mexico, 65; debates in French Chambers, 65, 67; execution of Zurbano, 65; revolution in the Punjab, 134, 166, 807, 832, 879; the Oregon question in Congress, 144; diet at Zurich, 144, 147, 166, 177, 195; fire at Barbadoes, 163; party debates in French Chambers, 166; the Spanish Cortes and the church property, 194, 195; explosion at Algiers, 195; Texas annexation passed, 213, 531; installation of President Polk, 213; civil war in Switzerland, 225, 258; debates on the fortification of Paris, 238; the Oregon question in America, 339, 400, 787, 851, 879; new Spanish constitution, 400; disturbances in the Lebanon, 423, 438, 448, 464, 496; outbreak in New Zealand, 436, 496, 567, 643, 807; earthquake in Mexico, 438; state of Sweden, 438; great fire at Quebec, 451, 531; disturbances in Cape Colony, 496; insurrection in Catalonia, 496, 514; the Dahra massacre, 496; conflagration at Smyrna, 515; steam-boat collision in the Black sea, 550; French butchery in Algiers, 567; riots at Leipzig, 574; fires at New York, 577; insurrection at Madrid, 594; dreadful hurricane in France, 601, 641; Mexico and the United States, 607, 641; C. M. Clay, 640, 743, 760; pastimes of Spanish royalty, 655; condition of Poland, 656; hostilities on the river Plate, 673, 689, 705, 788, 784, 807; the Texan Convention, 673; the French in Madagascar, 675; the war in Algeria, 688, 691, 705, 711, 723, 737, 739, 753, 784, 823, 855; insurrection in Italy, 710, 733; anti-slavery convention at Boston, 738; atrocities in Greece, 753; the Czar in Italy, 767, 816, 879; the President's message, 870; opening of French Chambers, 879.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

Agrarian outrages in Ireland, 6, 28, 185, 200, 425, 441; executions, 11, 71, 198, 200, 215, 216, 226, 258, 374, 401; the Salt Hill murder, 28, 37, 41, 87; agitation against the Charitable Bequests Bill, 41, 72, 87, 103; royal visit to Stowe, 50; disastrous storm, 67, 71; the great distillery case, 102, 313, 449; Mr. O'Connell and Mr. Gregg, 121; the Hampstead murder, 136, 145, 163, 168, 178, 242, 274; Birmingham meeting on the navy estimates, 145; Mr. O'Connell on the Maynooth grant, 243, 245, 253, 275; trial of short hours in factories, 168; the assizes, 178, 199, 216, 243; conference of Trades delegates, 195, 214; Kilkenny Repeal meeting, 299; St. Giles's murder, 311, 325; educational conference at Llandoverly, 328, 401; Aylesbury meeting on death punishments, 213; falling of the Yarmouth suspension bridge, 313, 378, 399; Dundalk Repeal meeting, 314; meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, 375; National Temperance Society, 376; 30th of May in Dublin, 378; Mr. O'Connell and the Irish colleges, 339, 387; fire at Raggett's hotel, 393, 401; duel at Gosport, 394, 424; convocation of Catholic Bishops, 394; Tara-hill demonstration, 394; fire in Fenchurch-street, 401; Dublin demonstration, 406; Cork ditto, 440; the British Association, 449, 466; outrages in Cavan, 478, 483; affray between the police and peasantry in Ireland, 482; case of the Brazilian pirates, 498, 786; Royal Agricultural Society, 518; Wexford demonstration, 530; destructive thunder-storm, 566; fire in Aldermanbury, 583; Orange demonstrations in Ireland, 585, 594, 642, 659; colliery explosions, 594; riots at Dunfermline, 609; the Catholic clergy and the Irish colleges, 608, 658; the Andover Union inquiry, 609, 610, 643, 659, 662; the potato pestilence, 641, 727, 739, 742, 769, 771, 784, 808, 818; fire at Sir C. Price's oil stores, 643; Tipperary Repeal demonstration, 674; floods in the north, 696; fire at Inverness, 707; the ministerial crisis, 725, 789, 835, 837, 851, 853, 867, 870, 881; Mayo Repeal meeting, 726; Lord Ashley and the Ten Hours' Bill, 727; dinner to Mr. Smith O'Brien, 737; Manchester Athenæum soirée, 743; meetings on the potato disease, 753, 819; movement for opening the ports, 757, 806; opening of the New-hall, Lincoln's-inn-fields, 759; municipal elections, 760; Lord Mayor's day, 775; the anti-slavery movement, 790; Sir R. Peel and the Trent Valley railway, 791; murders on board the Tory, 802, 851, 867; Lord John Russell's letter, 803; Lord Morpeth's letter, 817; Mr. O'Connell and the ministerial crisis, 857; steam-boat collision on the river, 856; preparations for a general election, 866; outrages in Tipperary, 871; two men buried alive, 872; destructive gales, 886; bursting of a water-tank at Liverpool, 887.

THE FREE-TRADE MOVEMENT.—Meetings at Manchester, 40, 70, 169, 759; Covent Garden, 49, 135, 242, 449, 865; Bristol, 169; Anti-corn-law Bazaar, 342, 376, 393, 405; Birmingham banquet, 791; the registration movement, 817, 848; the £250,000 fund, 850, 865; Miscellaneous, 803, 806, 813, 817, 833, 848, 851, 865.

EDUCATIONAL NEWS, 41, 87, 440, 466, 488, 497, 518, 536, 659, 803, 806, 825.

PEACE MEETINGS, 150, 146, 393, 821.

EARLY CLOSING MOVEMENT, 54, 177, 258, 497, 695, 719, 771, 803, 819.

RAILWAY NOTABILIA, 469, 505, 520, 560, 574, 624, 662, 678, 689, 703, 720, 735, 751, 766, 783, 808, 822, 839, 872, 882; railway accidents, 54, 71, 424, 435, 440, 451, 467, 518, 531, 537, 547, 552, 560, 574, 579, 609, 643, 675, 685, 721, 723, 737, 752, 767; investments in railways, 489.

COMPLETE SUFFRAGE MEETINGS, 64, 82, 97, 134, 166, 178, 193, 208, 224, 273, 379, 380, 400, 418, 434, 449, 495, 618, 629, 710, 789, 841; address of the Union to United States' citizens, 97; half-yearly report, 118; annual report, 341; soirée of the Metropolitan Association, 380; address to the people, 838.

PROTECTIONIST MEETINGS, 71, 81, 147, 199, 215, 393, 638, 657, 680, 743, 835, 838, 849, 880.

MR. VINCENT'S LECTURES IN SCOTLAND, 520, 530, 553, 561, 618, 639, 738, 769, 801, 825, 841, 872, 887.

THE WEATHER AND THE HARVEST, 538, 549, 565, 576, 600, 610, 623, 631, 663, 671, 711, 723, 744, 760.

ELECTIONS.—Dartmouth, 10; East Cornwall, 103, 136; Buckingham, 103, 136; Stamford, 103; South Wilts, 119; West Kent, 136, 274; Greenock, 266; Leominster, 274; Marlborough, 274; Woodstock, 313, 706, 727; Denbighshire, 343; Peeblesshire, 343; County of Down, 425; Dartmouth, 466, 488; Abingdon, 466, 483, 488, 547; Exeter, 466, 483, 488; West Suffolk, 466, 488; County of Edinburgh, 474; Cambridge, 483, 488, 499; Sunderland, 518, 518, 531, 535, 547, 551, 563, 567; Chichester, 517, 585; Cirencester, 567, 585; Warwick, 567, 585; Kirkcubright, 567, 579, 585, 595; Southwark, 579, 581, 583, 597, 611, 613, 627, 629, 645; Louth, 585, 595; Wigan, 706, 737; Windsor, 706, 727, 737; South Warwickshire, 775; West Riding, 832.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PRESS.

Spectator—English relations with Rome, 9—royal concord, 9—sanguinary epicurism, 25—dignity, 53—probabilities of another commercial crisis, 117—railway accidents, 602—the trade of England, 672—gregarious avarice, 757—taking stock, 773.

Examiner—Will Guizot stand? 39—a card for ministers, 53—French political comedy, 85—Income-tax, 133—the Whigs and the Income-tax, 165—duplicité of the Premier, 182—a Tory of the old school, 213—civil war in Switzerland, 1835 and 1845, 309—Mr. Forbes Mackenzie, 341—fire escape, 405—precautions against railway accidents, 561—steamers' boats, 757—the mote in our brother's eye, 773.

Manchester Times—the captain and the minister of the gospel, 9—Income-tax and war, 133.

Leeds Times—a canon on war, 26—no monopoly, 341—the tooth of Buddha, 405.

Suffolk Chronicle—a retrospect, 25.

Morning Chronicle—the state of the church, 39—working of the new tariff, 101—immigration to the West Indies, 657—gems of dual wisdom, 853.

Sun—Russia and its Czar, 69.

Times—changes in the ministry, 85—prospects of future commercial reform, 117—the battle of the gauges, 453—the American steam frigate Missouri, 656—the railway mania, 727—Lord Ashley and the corn-laws, 728—supply of wheat from abroad, 775—dangerous excess of railway speculation, 609—approach of the railway crisis, 727.

League—duties repealed by the new tariff, 133—oppression in Jamaica, 437—Sir R. Peel's responsibility, 789.

Economist—direct taxation, 149.

Inquirer—popular tastes, 165.

Patriot—electoral policy of Dissenters, 261—Irish landlords and the Times Commissioner, 639.

Morning Advertiser—the drainage bill, 625.

Norfolk News—Cambridge election, 517.

Eclectic Review—religious principles of M.P.'s, 733—the League and qualification movement, 821.

Anti-Slavery Reporter—the Guiana ordinances, 824.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Selections from Punch's Almanack, 13; Christianity and war, 26; the Revenue table, 26, 236, 483, 709; the Great Britain steam-ship, 36, 66, 536; departure of Mr. Pritchard, 53; new mode of copying engravings, 56; Louis Philippe and the London Missionary Society, 60; arrival of Tahitian missionaries, 85; electricity and agriculture, 86; anastatic printing, 88; a railway town, 88; mobbing the Queen, 98; the national debt, 98; public health, 105, 775; improvements of the piano-forte, 105; the monument to the Scottish political martyrs, 137, 169, 520; Coolie immigration, 170; Legacy and Probate Duty, 186; Couchman, the Sussex doctor, 199; the right of search, question, 226; the Duke of Newcastle's letter, 373; Mesmerism, 376; the bal costumé, 419; clearing system in Scotland, 425; railway excitement at the House of Commons, 437; the new comet, 451; the Queen's visit to the Channel fleet, 457; Duelling Association, 458; metropolitan improvements, 464; Westminster-hall exhibition, 464; departure of W. Knibb, 467; preservation of life from fire and shipwreck, 501; wreck of a Dutch East Indiaman, 514; Punch and his plagiarists, 535; registration intelligence, 137, 546, 593, 607, 611, 625, 657, 681, 694, 726; her Majesty's visit to Germany, 562, 563, 577, 579; the Beethoven festival, 563, 577; atrocious case of clerical depravity, 593; the Arctic expedition, 594; royal visit to France, 625, 627, 632; ought Cromwell to have a statue? 639; the game law, 639; disappearance of General Tom Thumb, 641; the east and west coasts of Ireland, 669; the rival archaeological societies, 664; results of emancipation in the British colonies, 680; railway robberies, 695; mortality on board the Eclair, 696, 713; Birkenhead, 704; the slave trade, 713; statues in the new houses of parliament, 728; shipwreck of a Hull and Hamburg steamer, 754; condition of the people of Ireland, 771; elopement of Lady Adela Villiers, 774; Mr. O'Connell as a landlord, 809, 839, 880; value of protective duties, 821; the Colosseum, 832; Romeo and Juliet, with some new readings, 834; new planet Astrea, 879; Queen Victoria at Osborne-house, 881; Carlyle's Letters of Cromwell, 883; China and the Chinese, 889.

DEATHS OF EMINENT MEN.—Laman Blanchard, 117; Marquis of Westminster, 180; Sir F. Buxton, 180; Sydney Smith, 137; Baron Gurney, 153; Sir F. Potter, 195; A. Blackwood, 195; Sir W. Pollett, 469; Earl Grey, 517; Earl Spencer, 693; Mrs. Fry, 728; William Knibb, 864.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.—29, 42, 57, 73, 89, 106, 122, 138, 154, 170, 186, 201, 238, 266, 282, 344, 378, 409, 425, 441, 458, 490, 506, 521, 538, 553, 696, 714, 723, 744, 761, 776, 792, 810, 825, 839, 856, 873.

LITERATURE.

REVIEWS.

The Monthly Periodicals, 12, 29, 90, 155, 249, 344, 426, 490, 569, 650, 697, 761, 840.

The People's Music Book, 57.

Dr. Arnold's Life and Correspondence, 73.

Essays on Christian Union, 90.

Mrs. Shelley's Rambles in Germany, &c., 106.

Memoir of the Rev. John Elias, 122.

Dissent, its character, &c., 201.

Dr. Durbin's Observations in Europe, 332.

Godwin on Christian Baptism, 410.

Mrs. Ellis's Look to the End, 442.

Dr. Reed's Hymn Book, 522.

Life of Richter, 586.

Mozart's Requiem, 664.

Dr. Payne on Original Sin, 664.

Gardner's Freedom of Will, 681.

Garney's Thoughts on Habit and Discipline, 681.

Duffy's Ballad Poetry of Ireland, 681.

Colbitt's Commentaries, 661.

Bailey's Pestus, 776.

Memoir of T. Cartwright, 792.

Dr. Kidder's Sketches of Brazil, 872.

Thiers' French Revolution, 888.

BRIEF NOTICES.

Montgomery's Illustrations of the Law of Kindness, 12; Abstinence from Intoxicating

Drink. By James Cox, 12; the Missionary Jubilee, 12; Payne's Universum, 12; the Church, Vol. I., 12; Essay towards a New Translation of the Epistle to the Romans, 12; Twelve Reasons against taking away Life as a Punishment, 12; the Congregational Calendar, 12; the Peace Almanack, 12; the New Englander, Vol. II., 30, 364; Old England, 30; the Pictorial Sunday Book, 30; land, 30; the Memorial of Mrs. Munday, 57; Jubilee of the Vindication of Dissent, 57; American London Missionary Society, 57; a Substitute for Biblical Repository, 57; a Substitute for Free Trade, 58; Methodist Quarterly Review, 58; Letters on Reformation in Church and State, 58; Agricultural Chemistry, 90; York-shire Miscellany, 90; Sunday School Books, 90; Knight's Political Dictionary, 90; Congregational Dissent Apostolical Conformity, 107; Mother's Practical Guide, 171; Stebbing's Family History of the Church, 171; the Silver Trumpet, 171; Cobbin's Penny Commentary, 171; Revise the Liturgy, 201; Peer, 201; the Book of the People, 201; Binney's Practical Power of Faith, 250; Dr. D'Aubigne's Luther and Calvin, 250; Ryland's Mission of the Church, 345; Tahiti, 345; the Influence of the Pious, &c., 426; Good: a Proposition on the National Debt, 426; Missionary Enterprises in many Lands, 426; the Conary Echo, 426; the Edinburgh Tales, 426; the Route-book of Devon, 442; the Olive Leaf, 442; the Oxford Crisis, 442; Mr. Parsons on Education, 458; Lectures on Bunyan, by Dr. Cheever, 523; Phonographic Publications, 523; Fuller's Works, 523; Grievances of our Mercantile Marine, 569; Baptist Irish Society, 569; Dr. Epps' Rejected Cases, 569; Our Era, by W. Leask, 569; Howitt's History of Priestcraft, 586; Mrs. Ellis's Temper and Temperament, 618; Lowell's Conversations, &c., 618; Fox's Lectures to the Working Classes, 681; the Dissenter's Plea for his Nonconformity, 714; the Orphan Working School, 714; Thorne's Tracts, 745; Payne's Elements of Science, 792; Dr. Cox on Christian Union, 793; Knight's Political Dictionary, 793; B. Barton's Household Verses, 826; Reformation in Bohemia, 826; England and its People, 826; Tentamen Anti-Straussanum, 840; D'Aubigne's Reformation, 840; the Round Preacher, 873; Metrical Version of the Hebrew Psalter, 873; Miss Martineau's Forest and Game Laws, 889; Charles Elwood, 888; Ultramontaniam, 888; the Church, 888.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

REPORT OF PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Baptist Home Missions, 285; Baptist Irish Society, 288; Bible Translation Society, 291; Baptist Missionary Society, 295, 323; Sunday School Union, 317; Religious Tract Society, 321, 345; Sailors' Society, 325; Bible Society, 328; Church Missionary Society, 330; Wesleyan Missionary Society, 331; London Missionary Society, 349; Colonial Missionary Society, 358; Irish Evangelical Society, 360; London City Mission, 365; Free Church of Scotland Missions, 364; Christian Instruction Society, 364; the Baptist Union, 410; General Baptist Association, 475.

ANNIVERSARY MEETINGS, 13, 58, 74, 138, 155, 331, 506, 522, 570, 666, 698, 762, 793.

CHAPELS OPENED AND RE-OPENED, 30, 123, 187, 234, 331, 395, 523, 570, 665, 699, 714, 730, 762, 793, 810, 889.

FIRST STONES LAID, 74, 282, 331, 389, 443, 762.

CHAPEL DEBTS LIQUIDATED, 74, 91, 123, 138, 187, 202, 217, 234, 395, 475, 538, 576, 746.

RECOGNITIONS AND SETTLEMENTS, 13, 58, 74, 91, 107, 123, 138, 155, 187, 202, 218, 250, 282, 331, 395, 426, 442, 459, 475, 506, 522, 538, 578, 565, 682, 746, 778, 793, 826, 889.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Wesleyan and Episcopal Methodists in America, 13; Wesleyan Methodist Association, 30, 570; Conference on the Congregational Colleges, 43; Protestantism in France, 59; Missionary Ship "Dove," 91, 107, 187; Division of the American Methodist Church, 107; Conversion to the Church, 139; Education of Ministers' Sons, 201; The "John Williams," 217; French Missions in China, 346; Baptist Midland Association, 359; Religious Societies in France, 426; Methodist New Conversion, 426; Primitive Methodists, 427; Newport Pagnell College, 459; Airedale College, 459; Dr. D'Aubigne at Manchester, 506; Cheshunt College, 506; Rotherham ditto, 506; Homerton ditto, 506; Bristol Baptist ditto, 506; Lancashire Independent ditto, 507; Congregational Union of Ireland, 538, 554, 665, 778, 793; New Mission to China, 539; China opened to Christianity, 665, 666; Christian Union Meetings, 793, 862; Congregational Union of North Wales, 810; the Death of Mr. Knibb, 889.